

COMPANY PROFILE

Acqua Brevetti is an over twenty years old expanding Italian Company which focuses its own commercial politic, as evoked from the company name that literally means “water patents”, in the continuous research of the best technologies and quality of the products offered.

Acqua Brevetti concentrates its own core-business in the production and commercialization of water treatment appliances both for domestic and industrial sector.

In particular, in quality of producer Company, Acqua Brevetti is specialized in the design and the manufacturer of successful innovative and patented filtration systems, dosing systems for the protection against scale and corrosion of boilers and pipes in DHW, and chemicals conditioning for heating systems in the domestic field.

Internal production of Acqua Brevetti indeed offers a wide range of patented cleaning and self-cleaning filters (with manual cleaning, semi automatic or automatic cleaning), starting from 1/2" up to 3" and over, realized with the best sturdy materials in the market, exclusive and safe proportional dosing pumps for DHW treatment employed for the dosage against scale and corrosion of high technological content, available in mechanic and electronic version from 1/2" - 3/4" and for the electronic models up to 1" 1/4. Moreover, a complete chemicals conditioning range for the closed loop heating systems, last formulated in respect to the user and environment.

Acqua Brevetti boasts a ceaseless innovation and research in its own products being able to guarantee the absolute quality and reliability, in respect to the highest European and Italian Standards.

With these top products, whose success is strongly remarked and asserted, Acqua Brevetti, together with the matchless long experience and know-how, is positioned as undisputed leader in this field.

*treating water is useful
and convenient!*

